1 General Introduction

The submitted abstract will be used for reviewing the presentation quality and relevance in reverence to the ICCM tradition.

The length for the abstract should be approximately (and no more than) 2 x A4 pages, including pictures, diagrams and few key references.

The abstract will be in A4 size with margins of top 36 mm, left and right 17.5 mm, bottom 22 mm. A column separation of 10 mm is used.

The text should be Times or Times New Roman with 11-point size, with the exception of the title of the abstract which must be 16-point Arial, bold, and the name and affiliation of the authors which must be 12-point Times or Times New Roman.

2 Preparation and Submission

2.1 Use of Templates

The abstract shall be prepared using this supplied template. The prescribed tool is:
Preparation in Microsoft Word and submission in PDF.

The abstract should conform in appearance to this example. After its completion, the author shall convert it to a PDF format.

2.2 General Procedures for Submission

The final PDF of your abstract must be submitted online. Abstract submission will be available from 31 August, 2018.

One registration is required for each accepted paper. Each presenter must register online by the registration deadline for the paper and presentation to be included in the ICCM22 program.

When submitting, make sure to choose the correct Track Chair (i.e. Session Developer) for your submission using the appropriate pull-down menu.

The file name should have the following pattern: LastNameOfFirstAuthor_ICCM22.pdf.
In case of multiple submissions, use 1, 2, 3…. after the last name in the file name. Example: wang1_ICCM22.pdf.

It is essential that the abstract be well checked with caution before submission. After the deadline date, no submissions will be accepted.

2.3 Software Used and Final Paper Format

The abstract must be submitted in PDF format. The assigned website will not accept any other format.

2.4 Tables, Diagrams and Figures

Care should be taken over the preparation of diagrams and figures. Figures will either be entered in one column or two columns and should be 80 mm or 170 mm wide, respectively. A minimum line width of 1 point is required at actual size. Annotations should be in 10 point with only the first letter capitalized. The figure caption should be preceded by 'Fig.' followed by the figure number. For example, 'Fig. 2. The elastic properties……'. All tables, diagrams and figures should be inserted at the bottom of main body of your abstract.

2.5 Equations

Using the appropriate editor, each equation should occur on a new line with uniform spacing from adjacent text as indicated in this template. The equations, where they are referred to in the text, should be numbered sequentially and their identifier enclosed in parenthesis, right justified. The symbols, where referred to in the text, should be italicized. Symbol font may be used for Greek letters.

$$F=(vm+pA) \tag{1}$$

3 General Style Preferences

3.1 Style of Writing

Abbreviations should be spelt out in full the first time they appear and their abbreviated form included in brackets immediately after. Words used in a special context should appear between single quotation marks the first time they appear. Spelling in either English or US styles is acceptable, provided a consistent spelling style is used throughout.

3.2 Abstract Length / File Size

The abstract should be approximately (and no more than) 2 pages including illustrations.

3.3 Figures and Tables

Fig.1 A lightweight composite bird

Fig.1. All tables, diagrams and figures should be inserted at the bottom of main body of your abstract.

3.3 References

3.3.1 Description
The papers in the reference list must be cited in the text. In the text, the citation should appear in square brackets "[1]," as in, for example, 'the green apple eventually turns red [3]...." In the Reference list, the font should be Times or Times New Roman with 10 point size. The Author name list should be terminated by a 'full stop.' The citation number should be enclosed in brackets.

Book titles should be in italics, followed by a 'full stop.' Proceedings or journal titles should be in italics. Only the first letter of the title should be capitalised in the article name as follows:
